

Program Message – Falun Dafa Day

On behalf of the Province of Nova Scotia, I am pleased to recognize International Falun Dafa Day, May 13th, 2024.

In Nova Scotia we celebrate many cultures and traditions. It is through events like today that we embrace the diversity in our province, but also gain a deeper understanding and appreciation all community contribute to our shared heritage.

The principles of Truthfulness, Compassion, and Forbearance, central to Falun Dafa, resonate with our Nova Scotian values. These principles guide us towards creating a more inclusive, kind, and respectful society.

I commend the practitioners and supporters of Falun Dafa for spreading messages of peace and well-being. Your contribution to our cultural landscape helps ensure Nova Scotia remains a place where cultural heritage and freedom of expression are celebrated.

I wish you all a meaningful and joyous Falun Dafa Day.

Sincerely,

Honourable Allan MacMaster, M.L.A.
Minister of Communities, Culture, Tourism and Heritage
