Dear Corinne Pankewich:

Thank you for your email regarding “Falun Dafa Day” in Saskatchewan on May 13, 2021.

Falun Dafa is a special day that highlights culture and diversity in our province, our country and the world.

The culture and diversity we have in Saskatchewan is what makes it such a special place. Sharing our cultural practices and traditions with our neighbours and friends brings us closer as a community, while encouraging acceptance, understanding and inclusivity.

Saskatchewan was the first province in Canada to pass multicultural legislation, and to this day, our cultural diversity remains strong and continues to be a priority.

The Falun Dafa celebration is an opportunity to recognize the spiritual and enduring teachings that convey universal principles of openness, truthfulness, compassion and tolerance in Saskatchewan and around the world.

Thank you for continuing to promote spiritual, mental, moral and physical well-being within our society through the teaching of Falun Dafa.

Sincerely,
