

Today, I extend warmest greetings to you on Falun Dafa Day. I believe wholeheartedly in the freedoms of belief, expression, thought and peaceful demonstration. Truth, compassion, tolerance and the elevation of one's own moral character are laudable and desirable values – values that are sorely in need of resurgence in today's society. If we are to better the world, we must first better ourselves.

- Matthew Luloff
Ottawa City Councillor
Orléans Ward