

Appendix 1A: Chinese Communist Party (CCP) Membership of National Organ Donation and Transplantation Committee and Two Hospital-level Ethics Committees

Table 1: National Organ Donation and Transplantation Committee — 2016 Membership

The table below lists all 33 members of the National Organ Donation and Transplantation Committee (NODTC) as published in the National Health Commission's 2016 membership adjustment notice—the latest publicly available full membership list.¹ Members are listed in the order they appear in the original document (two members were listed twice in the original, given their role on the secretariat, but are only listed once in the table below). The titles and affiliations listed are those cited in the original document.

■ = CCP member (confirmed) ■ = Status not confirmed in public sources

Source: National Health Commission membership adjustment notice, April 2016.²¹ Four members hold positions in the Logistics Support Department of the Central Military Commission (PLA), of whom two were confirmed as CCP members through publicly available sources; Party membership is effectively mandatory for senior PLA positions, so the confirmed figure likely understates PLA-linked Party membership on the committee.

Table 2: Nantong University Affiliated Hospital—Human Organ Transplantation Ethics Committee: Confirmed CCP Members

Total committee members: 14. Confirmed CCP members: 5 (36%).²² Note: Zhang Tao chaired every ethics sub-committee at the hospital simultaneously (covering organ transplantation, stem cell research, reproductive medicine, general research, and new medical technologies).

5	Cao Maohong 曹茂红 ²⁷	Member	CCP member; awarded 'Nantong University Outstanding CCP Member'; former Party Branch Secretary, Internal Medicine Branch 6

Note: CCP = Chinese Communist Party.

Table 3: Wuhan Union Hospital (Union Hospital, Tongji Medical College, Huazhong University of Science and Technology) — Medical Ethics Committee, 2024 Roster: Confirmed CCP Members

This committee appears to focus on reviewing research rather than clinical organ transplant procedures. It is included here as an additional example of the CCP's dominance in broader ethics committees, such as those used to vouch for research published in international medical journals.

Total committee members: 16. Confirmed CCP members: 7 (44%).²⁸
